

FINDING BEAUTY BEHIND BARS – Talk and Discussion

2.30 pm on Saturday, 21 February, St Mary's Church

The Rev'd Tim Hewes will be speaking about issues of faith, the climate emergency and prison. A C of E priest and former climate change activist with Christian Climate Action, Tim was remanded in custody for alleged involvement in Just Stop Oil's direct action to close the M25 in November 2022. He spent six weeks in custody, followed by a long wait for the trial which eventually acquitted him of all charges. His talk will be based on his recently published book, which has a foreword by Gavin Collins, Bishop of Dorchester. Tim will be sharing his struggles with faith, and the challenges and unexpected moments of beauty and humanity that he encountered while navigating the harsh realities of prison life.

Free entry. For further details or enquiries contact John Hedge, 07414 255500 or hedgejohn59@gmail.com

Almighty God,
give us reverence for all creation,
and respect for every person,
that we may mirror your likeness

God's Work in Creation and in History

O give thanks to the Lord, for he is good,
for his steadfast love endures for ever.
O give thanks to the God of gods,
for his steadfast love endures for ever.
O give thanks to the Lord of lords,
for his steadfast love endures for ever;
who alone does great wonders,
for his steadfast love endures for ever;
who by understanding made the heavens,
for his steadfast love endures for ever;
who spread out the earth on the waters,
for his steadfast love endures for ever

Future Glory

I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory about to be revealed to us. We know that the whole creation has been groaning in labour pains until now; and not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly while we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies. For in hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what is seen? But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience.

GOSPEL READING: MATTHEW 6. 25-END

'Therefore, I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink, or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? Look at the birds of the air; they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? And can any of you by worrying add a single hour to your span of life? And why do you worry about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they neither toil nor spin, yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you—you of little faith? Therefore, do not worry, saying, "What will we eat?" or "What will we drink?" or "What will we wear?" For it is the Gentiles who strive for all these things; and indeed, your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. But strive first for the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.

'So do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will bring worries of its own. Today's trouble is enough for today.
